

Job Title: CNC Machinist

Erdman Automation is the Domestic Leader in Window, Door & IG Automated Assembly Equipment. We are well known for developing ideas and leading industry trends. Our Customer Service and Support is Premium and unmatched by our competitors. At Erdman, we operate by the Golden Rule: “always do unto others as you would have them do unto you”.

Responsibilities & Requirements:

- CNC Machinist background required
- Adept with the usage of Mastercam software (desired not required)
- Adept with Haas and Milltronics Mills preferred
- Analyze blueprints and calculate and translate information to CAM program
- Determine the sequence of shaping operations and choose cutting tools needed
- Thorough understanding and capability in writing G-code programs and/or conversational
- Write programs or modify existing programs to store on machine controller
- Good reading comprehension, mathematical knowledge and listening skills
- Proficient in blueprint reading and inspection of own work
- Proficient use of manual mills and lathes preferred (but not required)
- Knowledge in basic machining principles (i.e., speeds, feeds, tooling, etc.)
- Strong problem solving/troubleshooting ability.
- Ability to lift 40 lbs as well as operate forklifts/be forklift certified
- Communicate and work efficiently in a team environment
- Possess organizational skills and be able to work with continually changing priorities while meeting production schedules and due dates.
- Various other shop duties as asked/required.
- Must have own tools.
- Must be able to work with minimal supervision.